Building Stronger Businesses. Shaping the Future Together.

It is my immense pleasure to welcome you to Intex Sri Lanka and InMac Sri Lanka 2026.

Every year, this exhibition brings together the global textile and apparel industry under one roof, but this year carries an even greater significance. As the industry navigates changing market dynamics, evolving buyer expectations and rapid technological advancements, the need for stronger partnerships and smarter manufacturing has never been more important.

Sri Lanka's apparel industry has earned worldwide recognition for its quality, craftsmanship and reliability. Their continued growth will play a defining role in achieving Sri Lanka's ambitious USD 8 billion apparel export vision 2030.

While Intex connects manufacturers with world-class suppliers of fabrics, yarns, trims, sustainable materials and innovative textile solutions from across the globe, InMac complements this ecosystem by bringing the latest garment manufacturing technologies, smart machinery and factory automation solutions directly to Sri Lanka. Together, they bridge the critical gap between sourcing and manufacturing—helping businesses access better materials, smarter technologies and stronger global partnerships, all under one roof.

Whether you are a growing SME, an established exporter, a sourcing professional or a technology provider, we hope this platform enables meaningful conversations, valuable partnerships and lasting business success.

On behalf of Worldex India, I sincerely thank our exhibitors, buyers, industry associations, government bodies and partners for their continued trust and support. Your participation is what makes Intex-InMac Sri Lanka one of South Asia's most important business platforms for the textile and apparel industry. I wish you a productive exhibition and a successful three days of networking, learning and business.
